FIFI AWARDS

The Fragrance Foundation hosted the 36th Annual FiFi Awards, honoring achievements and excellence in the fragrance industry. The Park Avenue Armory in New York City was filled with notable guests, including Zac Posen, Cynthia Rowley, Padma Lakshmi, and Bernadette Peters. Vera Wang was chosen by the Fragrance Foundation's Board of Directors to receive the Hall of Fame award for her extraordinary ingenuity and dedication to the fragrance industry.

BERTOLUCCI

Bertolucci Watches, Harper's Bazaar, and restaurateur Elizabeth Blau hosted a private dinner at celebrity chef Kerry Simon's newest Las Vegas venture, Simon at Palms Place. Guests dined on Chef Simon's signature dishes while taking in the ambiance of the chic venue, which overlooks the Palms Place pool and cabanas. The only thing brighter than the Vegas lights that evening was the watch worn by special guest Valérie Bègue, Bertolucci Watches Ambassador and Miss France 2008.

BERGDORF GOODMAN

Beauty-savvy New Yorkers were treated to a conversation with the experts at Harper's Bazaar and Bergdorf Goodman. While enjoying cocktails and hors d'œuvres, guests were privy to style secrets from beauty insiders John Barrett, of the John Barrett Salon, and Quinttin Phelps, Bergdorf Goodman's Global Beauty Expert. Harper's Bazaar Executive Fashion & Beauty Editor Avril Graham presented the best products to keep skin looking fresh and runway-ready, as John and Quinttin shared tips for achieving the season's must-have looks.

INDEPENDENT HANDBAG DESIGNER AWARDS

Over 600 designers competed for six awards in the 2008 Independent Handbag Designer Awards in New York City. The winner of the coveted Best Handbag in Overall Style and Design award was the chocolate pebbled "Diodora" bag by Lui Antinous. Legendary handbag designer Judith Leiber was also honored with the ICONOCLAST Award in Handbag Design for her brand's enduring contributions to the field of luxury accessories.
