BERTOLUCCI

Volta II presents enchanting and romantic asymmetrical designs featuring concentric circles and two intertwined hearts, representative of the ideal that two hearts are better than one.

The Black Volta features a black alligator strap and a white opal inlaid dial surrounded by High Weselton diamonds on the bezel (1.01 ct.). The dial features a swiveling heart-in-heart charm, 18 diamonds and 35 ruby gemstones that rotate in circles as you move. The Volta II collection, which features whimsical charms, dials and variations with many fine gemstones, diamonds and precious metals, starts at $3,950. Visit bertolucci-watches.com or call 866.706.6271 for more information.

"IN THE REALM OF FANTASY" WITH ROBERTO COIN & JAMES FREE JEWELERS

Town & Country hosted its 3rd annual Roberto Coin jewelry collector's dinner at The Tower Club in Beavercreek, Ohio, on November 16. Guests experienced an exclusive private viewing of the Roberto Coin Collections hosted by esteemed James Free Jewelers. The "glitterati" enjoyed an exquisite four-course meal complete with wine and jewelry pairings to match. The theme of the evening, "Nel mondo della fantasia" (In the Realm of Fantasy), was further enhanced by the exquisite décor and sparkling jewels for guests to try on and enjoy.

DE BEERS

On Wednesday, November 16, Town & Country, De Beers, and Naples Botanical Garden celebrated the new designs of the De Beers Wildflowers Collection at the newly remodeled De Beers Boutique in Naples, Florida. Naples Botanical Garden event co-chairs, Barbie Hills and Connie Vandenberg, as well as Devon Pike, CEO of De Beers Diamond Jewellers US, welcomed over 100 guests to view the radiant designs over champagne and canapés.
